LEXINGTON, KY (May 22, 2024) – La Familia, the Kentucky alumni team hosting The Basketball Tournament's (TBT) regional at Rupp Arena July 19-23, today announced the roster addition of former Wildcat Andrew Harrison.

Harrison now joins Daniel Orton, Kellan Grady, Marquis Teague, Willie Cauley-Stein, Eric Bledsoe, Doron Lamb, and Reid Travis among the players committed to La Familia's inaugural roster.

Andrew Harrison spent two seasons at Kentucky from 2013-2015, being a key contributor to both teams alongside his twin, Aaron. The high school McDonald's All-American averaged 10.1 points per game and 3.8 assists per game, starting all but one game during those two seasons. During the historic 2014-2015 season with a record of 38-1, Harrison was named to the Midwest NCAA Region All-Tournament Team and became Kentucky's all-time leader in assists through the first two years of his career.

After his sophomore season, Harrison was selected with the 44th overall in the second round of the 2015 NBA Draft by the Phoenix Suns. He has most recently played in Turkey for Yalovaspor BK in the Basketbol Süper Ligi.

Additional roster announcements will be made over the coming months via La Familia's social media pages, @LaFamiliaTBT.

La Familia will be joined in the Lexington Regional this summer alongside seven other teams, all vying for TBT's $1 million grand prize.
